- (99) Statement by Kimberly-Clark Corporation relating to administrative order issued by the SEC on March 27, 2002.

KIMBERLY-CLARK SAYS SEC ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER ADDRESSES MATTERS ALREADY COVERED BY 1999 RESTATEMENT OF PRIOR FINANCIAL RESULTS

Kimberly-Clark consented to the issuance of an administrative order by the SEC that relates to the recording of restructuring costs associated with the company's 1995 merger with Scott Paper Company. The company said the administrative order, issued on March 27, 2002, does not include any monetary penalties, and that the matters raised in the order were addressed in 1999 when the company voluntarily restated prior financial statements.

The accounting treatment for the 1995 restructuring charge was discussed with and reviewed by the company's independent auditors at the time it was recorded. In 1999, the SEC conducted a review of several years of financial statements. The company voluntarily restated its 1995 through the first quarter of 1999 financial results in August 1999 following the conclusion of the review. The restatement of the 1995 charge did not impact reported sales or cash flows, and total earnings per share over that period were unchanged. The order makes no change to financial results as restated in 1999.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation and its Audit Committee each reviewed and discussed with management and the Corporation's independent auditors the matters relating to the administrative order.

Kimberly-Clark cooperated fully with the SEC's informal inquiry and is pleased that this matter has been concluded.
